Polaris Retail Solution – Retail Excel is now powered by SAP NetWeaver

Chennai, August 29, 2007: Polaris Retail Infotech Ltd. (PRIL), a leading retail software provider and a wholly owned subsidiary of Polaris Software Lab Ltd, today announced that its flagship product, Retail Excel, has achieved SAP NetWeaver Certification.

Polaris Retail achieved “Powered by SAP NetWeaver” certification through its successful integration with SAP NetWeaver Exchange Infrastructure (SAP NetWeaver XI) and a Business Package for SAP Enterprise Portal. Retail Excel’s Point-of-Sale & Store Solution module integrates seamlessly with SAP Supply Chain & Distribution and provides a box like integrated end-to-end solution for retailers.

Commenting on the certification, Mr. Mohit Oberoi, Business Head, PRIL, said, “PRIL is now on an aggressive growth path. The SAP certification is a significant milestone in the company’s business roadmap. With this, PRIL is equipped to enter the International market and scale up its domestic presence.”

PRIL currently has over 70 customers with presence in 3000 stores.

About SAP NetWeaver:

SAP NetWeaver is the open integration and application platform that integrates people, information, and processes. It powers not only mySAP Business Suite and SAP xApps, but also partner solutions like Polaris Retail Excel, as well as customer custom-built applications. SAP NetWeaver aligns IT with the business and lowers the total cost of ownership of customer IT infrastructures.
